MEN are four: He who knows and knows he knows, He who knows and knows not that he knows, He who knows not and knows not that he knows not, He is a fool—shun him. He who knows not, and knows he knows not, He is a child—teach him. —Arabian Proverb.

CHRISTMAS Dainties.

Here is the recipe for a famous Christmas fruit cake which has graced the tables of several of our presidents, governors and foreign diplomats:

Christmas Fruit Cake.—The ingredients are as follows: A pound of butter, a pound of sugar, a pound of browned flour, sifted, twelve eggs, five pounds of seeded raisins, one and a half pounds of shredded citron, a glass of grape jelly, two teaspoonsful of melted chocolate, a pound of candied cherries, a pound of candied pineapple, a pound of blanched almonds cut fine, a pound of shelled pecans cut small, a tablespoonful of cinnamon, a scant tablespoonful of nutmeg, half a tablespoonful of allspice, a scant tablespoonful of powdered cloves, a glass of grape juice and two teaspoonsful of rose water. Soak the almonds overnight in the rosewater, and the fruit in the grape juice for the same length of time. Cream the butter, add the sugar and the well-beaten yolks of twelve eggs, then the spices, grape jelly and chocolate. Next add part of the flour, mix well and then fold in the whites of the eggs, beaten stiff. Roll the fruit in the rest of the flour, mixing it into the cake in small quantities at a time. Add the nuts last. Bake or steam from four to six hours in large or small molds. If steamed, dry off in the oven for an hour.

Fruit Vol au Vent.—Make a large cake of puff paste and fill it with alternate layers of sweetened and whipped cream and fruit of various kinds. Finish the top with fruit and chopped nuts.

Nool Salad.—Rub two hard cooked yolks with a tablespoonful of butter, half a teaspoon of anchovy paste, a few drops of lemon juice, a dash of white pepper. Chop the whites fine; rice the yolks and circle with the whites on a slice of tomato.

ROAST GOOSE.

This is the time of year when our thoughts turn in longing toward the toothsome roast goose.

A goose, because of its fat, should be thoroughly scrubbed in hot soap suds and thoroughly rinsed, then remove the inside contents, wash in cold water and wipe. Stuff, truss, sprinkle with salt and pepper and cook, breast down, in the roasting pan. If roasted breast up, cover the breast with strips of bacon, which will keep it from becoming too dry.

Stuffing for Goose.—Two cups of hot mashed potato, a cup and a fourth of bread crumbs, a fourth of a cup of chopped salt pork, a finely-chopped onion, a third of a cup of butter, a well-beaten egg, a teaspoonful and a half of salt and a teaspoonful of sage. Mix all together and stuff the goose.

Chestnut Stuffing.—Cook half a tablespoonful of finely-chopped shallot with three tablespoonfuls of butter; add a fourth of a pound of sausage meat, and cook two minutes, then add twelve mushrooms, finely chopped, a cup of chestnut puree (which is chestnuts cooked until tender and put through a sieve), a half of a tablespoonful of chopped parsley, and salt and pepper to taste. Heat to the boiling point and add a third of a cup of bread crumbs and twenty-four whole chestnuts. Cook the mixture before stuffing the goose.

Norwegian Goose Stuffing.—Pare and quarter good-flavored apples, soak and stone a half pound of prunes; season the goose well internally with salt and stuff with the apples and prunes. The proportion of apple to prunes is two to one in quantity. One often reads that this stuffing is not to be served, but the real Norwegian considers this stuffing most delicious, and as it seasons the goose so well, the gravy is always flavored with the stuffing.

Buckeye Notes

Iceman Hangs by Tongue.
Cincinnati.—George Klump, an iceman, was dangerously injured when he was caught in the prongs of his ice tongs and suspended in the air until released by a passerby. As he jumped from his wagon with the tongs over his shoulder the chain holding the two points together, caught on the brake handle. The weight of Klump's body caused one of the sharp points to cut deep into his left chest, while the other point penetrated far into the back.

Girls Lose $14,000 Suit.
Canton.—Fourteen young women who are employed in the Stark county court house saw $14,000 each go glimmering when Referee L. H.
Taylor decided that $22,700 which Samuel Rulick, late eccentric octogenarian, had given away, should remain in the hands of the recipients, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boron. Rudy took a fancy to the court house girls and made a will, giving them $14,000.
Later he made another will, by which he got nothing. The girls' only hope now is in common pleas court.

Italian Shooting Affray.
Steubenville.—An Italian boarding house near Rayland resembled a shambles when two factions who attended a "keg fest" got through fighting.

Augustina Parco was shot through the heart and killed. Tony Parco was shot through the chin. Three others were seriously cut with knives. The interior of the house was wrecked.
The men had no alternative but to fight as an Italian with a revolver guarded the door. In another shooting during a quarrel over the matching game of "ching," indulged in by Italian gunmen, one man was fatally shot, Jim Fallucco was accused of unfairness in the game and the police say Emilio Pace held Fallucco while Antonio Pace shot him in the head.

Bread Recipe Wins Husband.

Dennison.—John Evans and wife have just returned to their home near Dennison, after a honeymoon in the south, previous to which they had been married because of Evans' taste for bread. Evans is 72 and is wealthy. A few weeks ago he ate a new kind of bread and was so well pleased with it that he made the acquaintance of the baker, Miss Julia Walton, 56, New Philadelphia, and promptly made her his wife.

Man Held for Killing Baby.

Delaware.—John Morrow, aged 30, was arrested here by Sheriff Chilcote of Morrow county on a warrant charging first degree murder.
Morrow is accused of having smothered to death the 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Platt in this city. Morrow was for some time a boarder at the Platt home.

Grazed Man Hurts Dozen.

Lima.—With a heavy iron bar with which he felled prisoners right and left, Herbert Mowery, 35, ran amuck in the outside corridor of the city prison and injured a dozen or more prisoners and Workhouse Superintendent W. H. Workman, jumped from the second story window of the jail and fled. He was captured by policemen after he had terrorized pedestrians on the public square.

Akron.

Following a quarrel here two men, each 21 years old, fought a duel in the street. Charles Franks was quicker with his gun than Von Rooker. Rooker was shot in the abdomen and probably will die. The fight started over remarks which Rooker is alleged to have made about Franks in a boarding house. Franks was arrested under a porch of a house near the scene of the shooting.

Bowling Green.—Pop bottles in the hands of Frank Bortle, agent of the Toledo, Bowling Green & Southern Traction line at Merrill saw the company's money from a robber with a revolver attempted to hold up Bortle in the station. The fellow ran when the bottles came his way.

Delaware.—"If her baby was dead
I thought she would elope with me.
So I wrapped blankets around the baby's head and waited for her to die." That in substance is part of a confession which Sheriff C. B.
Chilcote announced was made to him by John Morrow, arrested here charged with murder.

Ashland.—Cloyd Ebert, 28 years old, died at his home here after in-fering since July 30, when it is charged, he was shot in the back by Officer Tod Spreng of the
